The NDIS Code of Conduct

The NDIS Code of Conduct applies to all NDIS providers and workers (including employees and contractors).

What does the Code require?

Anyone providing supports and services to people with disability must:

Respect the rights of the person

Act with respect for individual rights to freedom of expression, self-determination and decision-making in accordance with relevant laws and conventions

Deliver services competently

Provide supports and services in a safe and competent manner with care and skill

Prevent violence, neglect, abuse and exploitation

Take all reasonable steps to prevent and respond to all forms of violence, exploitation, neglect and abuse of people with disability

Respect privacy

Respect the privacy of people with disability

Act with integrity

Provide supports and services with integrity, honesty and transparency

Take action on quality and safety

Promptly take steps to raise and act on concerns about matters that might have an impact on the quality and safety of supports provided to people with disability

Prevent sexual misconduct

Take all reasonable steps to prevent and respond to sexual misconduct.

If you witness any activity that breaches the NDIS Code of Conduct, either at your organisation or at another provider, you should report it to the NDIS Commission. Your report will help us take direct action to protect the safety of people with disability.

To report a possible breach of the NDIS Code of Conduct call 1800 035 544.
